

School of Nursing students received grand farewell

Farewell for outgoing students of School of Nursing was organised by 3rd year students. Dean, Prof. Ashia Qureshi in her farewell speech congratulated and appreciated students for their achievements in academic discourse and uncommon zeal they have demonstrated towards curriculum and co-curriculum activities and patients care. She emphasised and told students to always see themselves as good ambassador of Galgotias University and never allow selfish interest to blemish the integrity they have nurtured over the years in the great university .
