

In charge: Prof. (Dr.) Seema Yadav

Established in the year 2018 under the School of Law, the Centre for Corporate Law & ADR is aimed at undertaking extensive research in the area of Corporate Law and Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR). Being an emergent field, Corporate Law and ADR is replete with changes taking place continuously across the globe. Therefore, the centre is focused at identifying emerging issues in this arena and addressing the same through dialogue, discussions and collaboration with the industry. The Centre aims to create a platform for experts from the industry and academics to come together and strive towards creating a more dynamic universe of Corporate Law and ADR.

The Centre is driven towards invoking meaningful discourse on various matters under legislations such as Companies Act, 2013; Competition Act, 2002; Insolvency & Bankruptcy Code 2016 etc. along with ADR matters and to come up with new ideas and solutions. To this end, the Centre organizes guest lectures, seminars and workshops by inviting resource persons from academia and industry to ensure value addition amongst the students, faculty members and all stakeholders alike. It is the ambition of the centre to be known for its commitment towards the field of Corporate Law & ADR and make a valuable contribution to this area.
