

Report On
CELEBRATION OF WORLD PHARMACIST DAY

Date: 28/Sep/2021

Theme 2021: Pharmacy: Always trusted for your Health”

Organized by
Department of Pharmacy

SCHOOL OF MEDICAL AND ALLIED SCIENCES
Galgotias University, Greater Noida, UP

Celebrating World Pharmacists Day is already a valuable tool to promote the profession, but using this opportunity to achieve specific results will make this celebration even more relevant and useful for an organization and members as well.

While the theme has been suggested by FIP, you may need to refine it to make it relevant for your country. Every year on 25th September World Pharmacist Day is observed and celebrated across the world. It is a day dedicated to pharmacist for their significant role in improving global health.

The theme for World Pharmacist Day this year is “Pharmacy: Always trusted for your Health” developed by the International Pharmaceutical Federation (FIP), have been focus on the practice of pharmacy keeping in mind the diverse clinical settings and also the importance of trust in healthcare services.

In this auspicious day Department of Pharmacy, SMAS has been organized some events to celebrate this day. The program was started with lamp lightening and Saraswati Vandana, followed by inauguration speech of Dean of School Prof. P.K. Sharma. In his speech, he has motivated the students to know the value of their profession and role of pharmacist in health care system. He also provided some knowledgeable information to student about the profession of Pharmacy. In Addition to this Dr. Vijay Kumar Singh, HOD (Pharmacy) also address the students and given emphasis on theme of the event and said that trust is basic things for any relationship.

Various cultural events have been organized to cheer up the students i.e., Rangoli competition, Poster making competition, Quiz competition, Singing competition, Dance competition etc. Students were participated in these events with full enthusiasm and win the prices.

The students of B. Pharm, M. Pharm and D. Pharm were participated in the events. The program was end with distribution of certificates to the winners.

Venue: B-Block, Room No. 209

Number of students participated: 200

Number of faculty participated: 25

Photographs of events:

Inaugural ceremony and lamp lightening

Speech by Dean Prof. P.K. Sharma and HOD Dr. Vijay Kumar Singh

Dance Competition of Students

Poster Presentation of Students

Certificate Distribution to Students