Description (min 250 to max 800 words)*

On 08/ 09/2022 a magnificent and memorable event was organized by the NSS Unit-3 on International literacy day. It was an auspicious day for the entire NSS Team. The program commenced with the welcome speech and lighting of lamp followed by Saraswati Vanandana.

Every year, World Literacy Day is

	celebrated on 8 September. On this day, literacy is celebrated internationally and awareness campaigns are conducted. UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization) declared this day a holiday in 1964. Literacy is essential to our educational opportunities. The importance of literacy in basic education cannot be overstated. Education is based on literacy, with an educated person knowing how to eradicate poverty, reduce child mortality, curb population growth, etc. As a result of celebrating this world literacy day, people will become more aware of their rights as individuals and as a society. This event was held in the B- block seminar hall of our university. In this mega event, many students from different departments took part in various activities Few motivational words were said by Prof.(Dr) PK Sharma followed by A. Ram Pandey Sir. The event was wonderful and successful by the contribution of all the NSS members. The event was concluded by Dr Niranjana Kaushik by his powerful words and life learning lessons.
