1. INTRODUCTION:

Art Gallery, School of Architecture established in 2014 Along with School of Architecture in Galgotias University C Block, Second floor.

Art Gallery of Architecture is a platform to showcase the work and skills, designing and technical skills of students. Since its inception gallery has made a significant contribution to the understanding the time line and design strategies of students of Architecture.

An art gallery is a hall and corridors in C block Galgotias University in which visual art is displayed. Among the many reasons art may be displayed are aesthetic enjoyment, cultural enrichment, or for marketing purposes. While "gallery" continues to be used in the name of institutions for the study, preservation, and restoration as well as the display of art and Architecture, these additional functions identify the institution as an Art museum. The art gallery is open to the all university as well as public for the display of art & Architecture work. As part of the art & Architecture world, art galleries play an important role in maintaining the network of connections that define fine art & architecture.

The Mission of Art Gallery:

- Showcase of student's thesis and other studio work, their sheets and models.
- Expose the School of Architecture to the broader level
- Provide opportunities for students to prepare, present, and view their work in a professional gallery setting.
- Present exhibits which support and engage multiple disciplines.
- Expose students, faculty and area residents to art & Architecture that otherwise would not be available without travelling to distant urban centers.

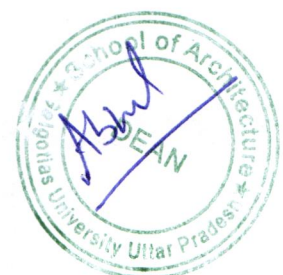

Art Gallery of School of Architecture plays multiple roles, both visible and invisible to incubate and support young students of Galgotias University. It is a good medium to show various trends of art and architecture through visuals, graphics, images and models as the people now connected to all of these more than any things.

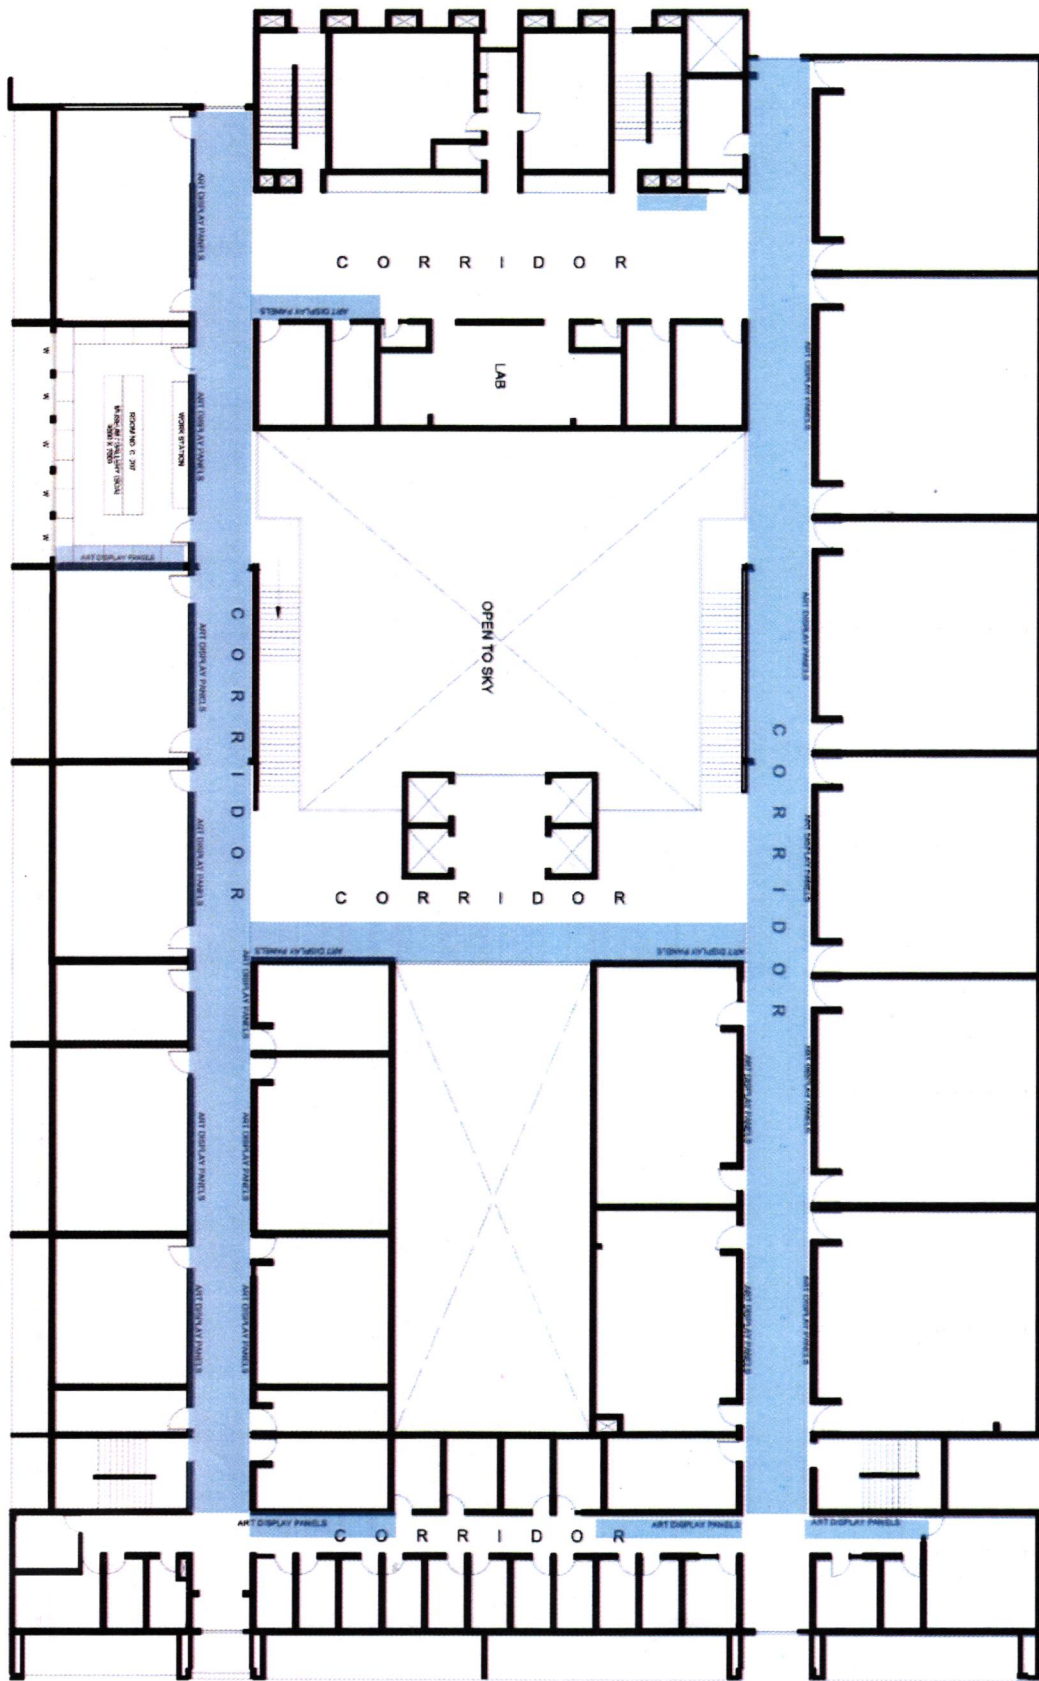

Art Gallery of School of Architecture is a place where one can see and may buy artworks by emerging, established or master artists. It's important to keep in mind that a gallery is not a shop, but a meeting point for art lovers.
