ORIENTATION DAY

19 AUGUST, 2020

Galgotias University welcomed the Fresh Buds with the same zeal as ever, and greeted them for the new beginnings in student life. The program made the best of the pandemic and left no stone unturned starting at 11:00 AM on Zoom. To start off, the newbies were greeted by the anchors from our Literary Club, Lingo Freaks, and to introduce the students to the Student Council and its working, we had our Vice Secretary Sneha Sakshi. NoteVeda, the Music Club, shined on the strings and blew us away with a great musical performance, followed by a very creative performance by The Actor's Hub: the Dramatics Club. Between it all, the Student Council General Secretary and Joint Secretary detailed the operation of the Student Council and its roles for the students and administration via an informative presentation.

After this, the fresh students were introduced to Graphex and CamCircle: visual art avenues through which they could show and let their talents take the lime light in unique ways. Some videos and photos were also shown to let the newcomers know what they would get to learn and benefit from by joining the Student Council in the coming academic session. TechnoJam, the club for computer enthusiasts, coders and the tech savvy, was introduced afterwards. To close it off, Studio-D tore up the virtual dance floor through a smashing performance. Lastly, the Galgotias University Student Council's respected Core Team delivered the closing remarks, by welcoming the Freshers with zeal once again, and wishing them luck for their time ahead through the learning journey that goes beyond academics at Galgotias University.

All Booked: The Book Club

All Booked was formed to gather and collect a group of people with the same interest and passion for book reading. There was a desperate need for All Booked in Galgotias as this was one of the only community which was left behind. All Booked started to emerge and form at the end of last year. Since then we have covered "1984" by George Orwell & "And Then There Were None" by Agatha Christie. We had 3 club meetings for each book where we discussed the book's writing style, what we liked - what we didn't, excerpts from the book, character analysis, story analysis, facts related to the author/book, and many more. We started this session (2020-21) with "And Then There Were None". All Booked is now also enrolled as an official book club on bookclubz.com: a facility that helps in maintaining and managing book clubs.

TRIGGER WARNING IS A COLLECTION OF SHORT STORIES BY NEIL GAIMAN

Each story in the book is written in a different style. Some are written with a spooky horroresque backdrop while others are written in the style of fairytales. Some are rather short and would remind you of Aesop's fables.

There are also poems in the collection trying their hand at conveying a good tale. Some yarns feel too stretched as Gaiman gets lost detailing the new world. But two almost omnipresent things. His tongue-in-cheek humor. The title of the book itself is an exhibit of the same.

PET'S PHOTOGRAPHY

In CamCircle's Weekly Photography Competition, young and enthusiastic photographers participated actively with some amazing images. Among the weekly topics handed out to all budding photographers across the month was 'Pet's Photography', wherein participants had to click shots exclusively of their beloved pets in their own uniquely creative ways, with no other requirements needed to get into the fierce fight.

This competition was mainly organized for helping young photographers in developing their photography skills and improving the creativity by using just a small product and showcasing the subject in a very unique way. All the participants performed very well and gave a tough competition to each other. The pictures of their cute pets were captured with full creativity. By the end, only one gets to be featured, however.

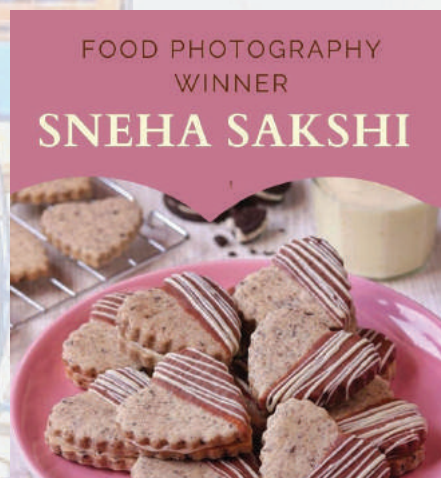

And so finally, CamCircle announced the winner on their Instagram handle, so Yash Garg's masterful shot stood out among the rest and made him the winner of the event.

"ज़िन्दगी के मौसम"

कभी ज़िन्दगी तो कभी मौत की फरमाइश करते हैं,
ज़िन्दगी के मदहोश मौसम में वो थमे रहने की
ख्वाहिश करते हैं।

ना जीने का सबब जानते हैं ना मरने का अजाब,
समझते नहीं ये बदलता मौसम है बस एक
मिराज।

निकलते उस आफताब से ढलते उस शाम तक,
ज़िन्दगी का ये मौसम बस तेरे मन के आराम
तक।

ना बन तू बंदे असीर अपने दुःख के असास पे,
कर खुद पे यकीं और रख अपने कल्ब को जीने
की आस पे।

गर अशक बहाएगा तू दुःख में तो इसका इलाज
कब करेगा,
लड़ के खुद की कमियों से तू बन्दे खुद पे नाज़
कब करेगा।

तो रख उस तबस्सुम की चमक अपने नाखुशी
के निगार पे,
तू आकर देखेगा ये बदलता मौसम है तेरी
खुशियों के द्वार पे।

SEASONS OF LIFE

'Seasons of Life' has just three words but trust me, it's abstruse. 'Seasons' and 'Life', both have different meanings but beyond their immediate denotation, the words have a connotative power.

Let me clarify it, since we are familiar with both of these words, let's talk about seasons first. Seasons never stop, first, it's winter, then it's spring, then summer, after it monsoon and autumn at last. Basically, this sequence never stops. Either it's a leap year or a normal year but the sequence never breaks. Similarly our life never ever stops its continuation i.e. infant to teenage then adolescence and then adulthood. We need to accept and apply that in our life. You cannot change the seasons but you can change yourself. Life is like the changing seasons. There is a famous quote- "life gets better for you not by chance but by change". Some stages are hard and some are easy but, my dear, that keeps coming. You must need to handle nights because only after that a day comes.

SEASONS OF LIFE

There is a simple formula that for years, seasons never change you must learn how to handle it that's part of life. You can't skip it but there is one thing you can do; you can get stronger, you can get wiser and you can get better. The coming of winters won't change but you can and that's how life changes for you. Remember one thing; don't wish for fewer problems but instead, wish for more skills, don't wish for fewer challenges but instead wish for more wisdom and that's the key.

There is a famous story of a man who had four sons. He wanted his sons to learn not to judge things too quickly. So he sent them each on a quest in turn to go and look at a pear tree that was a great distance away. The first son went in the winter, the second in the spring, the third in the summer, and the fourth son in the fall. When they returned he called them together to describe what they had seen.

The first son said that the tree was ugly and bent and twisted. The second son said it was covered with green buds and full of promise. The third son disagreed and said it was laden with blossoms that smelled so sweet and looked so beautiful, it was the most graceful thing he had seen. The last son disagreed with all of them. He said it was ripe and drooping with fruit full of life and fulfillment. The man then explained to his sons that they were all right because they had each seen only one season in the tree's life. He told them that they cannot judge a tree or a person by only one season. That's the essence of who they are. The pleasure, joy, and love in one's life can only be measured at the end when all the seasons are up. If you give up when it's summer you will miss the promise of your spring, the beauty of your summer, and the fulfillment of your fall. Aspire to inspire before you expire. There is common knowledge of what is right what is wrong but the question is how you handle the night, your downfalls, and your disappointments. Never ever let the pain of one season destroy the joy of all the rest. You must learn to handle the recession that always follows a progression. Utilize seasons to get the greatest rewards. At last, we must thank every phase of our life for being an important part of our season. May God bless you and keep you in his perfect care through all the seasons of your life.

not everyone in this world is real,
but when I realized,
there was no one real like him.

When my eyes first met him,
like magic in his eyes,
and I lost it all.
I still knows it's the,
best thing that happened.

When we talked,
kindness in his smile,
it's just like,
as if the happiness ,
is just living with him.
And falling in love with him,
was the finest thing that happened.

A new form of his
opened up to me,
and I went,
on to read it,
each and every words,
that engraved on his golden heart.
I read them as,
if those words were mine,
and I got lost in those things.

I'll gently turn over,
every page and explore you till,
there's nothing left.
And i'll read you
again and again,
every letter, every word,
every story and every thing
until i understand you.
because your name is written,
on the page of my soul,
and everyone wants,
to know themselves.

FICTITIOUS AFFECTIONS

Everyone loves fiction because more often than not, it portrays and lets happen what none can really make happen, and that's what makes every being fond of those characters which are just characters. To cherish the love for those fictional characters which gives birth to numerous emotions, all too human, on the 10th of September, Kafila organised "Fictitious Affections", a session for hearty conversation on the numerous popular and cult favourite characters we all love so dearly. The characters that make people laugh, cry, anxious for them, jealous as them, or just simply, be like them.

"That's what fiction is for.
It's for getting at the truth
when the truth isn't sufficient for the truth."

Tim O' Brien

EXPRESSIVE WRITING

We all opt to write. At times to express ourselves and other times to understand ourselves. To make sure we don't forget ourselves entirely, Kafila - The Mental Health Club organised an interactive session on Expressive Writing on 23 September. With help from interesting and fun prompts, participants wrote a lot of things about themselves, and discovered a few things along the way. Aside writing to understand themselves better, they shared their thoughts to know each other better.

"Writing is finally a series of permissions you give yourself to be expressive in certain ways.
To leap. To fly. To fall."

Susan Sontag

humanity receives its

OPEN ORATION

Open Oration is an art form in which participants get a chance to try their hand at performing for an audience. It lets you show off your ability to express yourself in good words and in a framed manner within a limited time. Lingo Freaks, the Literary Club of Galgotias University organised an in-house Open Oration on 8th of September 2020 at 6:00 PM. The event took place on MS Teams and numerous people participated. The participants were given 2 to 5 minutes to speak on any topic ranging from stories to poems and to reviews, with only the act of oration being the bound on the participant's self-expression. The winners were marked on the basis of their fluency and the emotions they expressed. After an electric competition, Trishla Pal stole the event with her beautiful take on Titanic.

"You can speak well if your tongue can deliver the message of your heart."

John Ford

OPEN WRITING

There are only a few people who have the ability to take you to a different world, some do it by their amazing cinematography, some through their direction, and some, through their writing. Saluting those who have always constructed a different world for all the readers, Lingo Freaks declared its second event of the month, Open Writing on the 12th of September, where participants had to write their hearts out, quite literally, and create their own tiny little worlds for us. With a deadline of a week to follow, we received almost 15 amazing set of pieces, from which Kriti Singhal emerged as the winner, while Hanisha Gurindapalli was a close second. The results were declared on the 19th of September.

"We're all apprentices in a craft where no one ever becomes a master."
