Moot Court Facilities and Infrastructure

at

School of Law, Galgotias University

Mooting captures a law student's attention perhaps like no other co-curricular activity. Mooting is a highly useful, competitive activity. It helps you develop the core skills of research and writing, argumentation and presentation, and teamwork. Many excellent mooters land up with top internship and job offers solely on the basis of the mooting capabilities. Far more importantly, a good moot court competition is a journey towards self-development. Galgotias Law School, Galgotias University provides for a quality pattern of mooting culture which will help students learn the fundamentals and the advanced aspects of mooting. It is not only the participating teams who put in their effort for the competition, the Moot Court Society comprising of faculties and students also worked hard to make this a huge success. Workshops were conducted by Moot Court Society for the students to motivate them to take part followed by another workshop wherein they were briefed about the benefits and importance of Moot Court Competition and how it will help them to become more confident and better person in their life.

Our Law School has a well defined and updated mooting structure having a well organized Moot Court Committee which consists of representation from both the faculty and the student side. We have a rich infrastructure consisting of a vibrant and big Moot court hall giving the ambience of a real running court hall, to practice the intra moot court sessions. For a comprehensive understanding of law, there is need to master not just concept but also its manner and actual practice. The School of Law, Galgotias University has a sprawling Moot Court Hall, which is an exact replica of an actual court. It enables students to take part in simulated court proceedings involving drafting briefs, participating in oral argument and holding mock trials. The Moot Court Hall is used not just during the Court Room Exercises but also during mooting competitions and Moot Court Skill Development sessions held on various occasions in the Semester.

Moot Court Society of School of Law felicitates students in competing in various moot court competitions throughout the country. Various Intra College competitions related to moot court
