⊕ Promoting Financial Inclusion for Reduced Inequalities

Aligned with SDG 10: Reduced Inequalities, the School of Finance and Commerce at Galgotias University organized a Financial Awareness Camp at the Kailash Satyarthi Children Foundation, Chhatarpur, New Delhi, to empower underprivileged children and their families.

A dedicated team of ten students and one faculty member conducted interactive sessions on budgeting, financial planning, saving, and investment, bridging the gap in financial literacy.

Study materials were distributed to ensure equal learning opportunities, while motivational discussions encouraged children to aspire for economic independence and self-reliance. Social and cultural activities fostered teamwork, confidence, and inclusivity, creating a platform for holistic development.

This initiative reflects Galgotias University's commitment to addressing economic disparities, ensuring that financial knowledge reaches marginalized communities. By promoting financial inclusion and empowerment, the camp played a crucial role in reducing inequalities, reinforcing the right to education and economic opportunity for all.
