

EVENT FORMAT

1.Event Banner - (h*w): 300*350 (Pixels)

2. Event Title

Heritage Celebration

3. Event Date and Year

16 October 2025

4. Event brief description – 200 words

The School of Education, Galgotias University, successfully organised a Heritage Celebration on October 16, 2025, with the objective of promoting cultural awareness, appreciation, and exchange among B.Ed. and M.Ed. students. The event showcased the rich cultural diversity of India, featuring captivating performances, including group and solo dances, musical skits, and cultural dances representing different states.

Students actively participated in the event, presenting energetic performances that highlighted India's vibrant heritage. Notable performances included a mesmerizing Bihu dance by Digogna, a first-semester student. The event also celebrated Chath Puja and Diwali, demonstrating the university's commitment to promoting cultural diversity and inclusivity.

The coordinators, Ms Neha Kumari and Dr Anita Swarnakar, congratulated the SOE team for their efforts in making the event a success. Dr Satyendra Gupta, Professor and Dean, School of Education, appreciated the students' efforts and wished everyone well.

5. Event Detailed Description- Max 500 words

The School of Education, Galgotias University organised a vibrant heritage celebration on October 16, 2025, bringing together B.Ed. and M.Ed. students to showcase the rich cultural diversity of India. The event aimed to promote cultural awareness, appreciation, and exchange among students.

The objectives of this event are to celebrate and preserve India's rich cultural heritage, promote cultural exchange and understanding among students from diverse backgrounds and to provide a platform for students to showcase their talents and creativity

Students presented captivating performances, including group and solo dances, musical skits, and cultural dances representing different states of India. Digogna, a first-semester student, mesmerized the audience with her energetic Bihu dance. Puja Solanki and Darshita kept the event lively with their excellent anchoring skills.

The event was a testament to the university's commitment to promoting cultural diversity and inclusivity. Students, faculty, and staff came together to celebrate Chath Puja and Diwali, showcasing the rich cultural tapestry of India.

This event aligns with SDG 4, Quality Education, which empowers learners with knowledge and skills for sustainable development. By safeguarding cultural heritage, the event contributes to SDG 11: Sustainable Cities and Communities, particularly 11.4, which promotes inclusive and sustainable urbanisation.

Overall, the heritage celebration was a grand success, promoting cultural awareness, appreciation, and exchange among students. The coordinators of the event, Ms Neha Kumari and Dr Anita Swarnakar, congratulated the whole SOE team for their efforts in making the event a great success. Dr Satyendra Gupta, Professor and Dean, School of Education, also wished the students for their efforts and wished everyone.

6. Pictures /Photos/Image

7. Mentor Name –

Neha Kumari

8. Department Name –

School of Education

9. SDGs Linked with images- 4 (Quality Education)

10. No of Registrations (Numerical data)

NA

11. No. of Attendees (Numerical data)

Internal - 64 (55 students, 9 faculty)

12. Event Outcome

- ❑ Students developed a deeper understanding and respect for India's rich cultural diversity.
- ❑ Students from diverse backgrounds came together, showcasing their talents and traditions
- ❑ Students enhanced their creativity, communication, and teamwork skills through performances and event organization.
- ❑ The event contributed to preserving and promoting India's cultural heritage, aligning with SDG 11
- ❑ B.Ed. and M.Ed. students learned to incorporate cultural diversity and inclusivity into their teaching practices, promoting sustainable development (SDG 4).

13. Social media Poster - (h*w): 400*1900 Pixels

