Description (min 150 to max 800 words) *	The School of Nursing successfully organized the celebration of International Nurses Day on 12th May 2026 at 9:00Am –5:00Pm. with great enthusiasm and spirit. The event was conducted under the inspiring theme, “Our Nurses. Our Future. Empowered Nurses Save Lives.” The program aimed to recognize the dedication, compassion, and invaluable contribution of nurses in healthcare services and society. The celebration commenced with a warm welcome of the dignitaries, faculty members, students, and guests. The event was graciously presided over by Dean Prof. Dr. Lekha Bist, whose presence added dignity and motivation to the occasion. In her address, Prof. Dr. Lekha Bist highlighted the significant role of nurses in patient care and emphasized the importance of empowering nurses for a healthier and stronger future. Various cultural and educational programs were organized to make the event memorable and engaging. Students enthusiastically participated in different activities including dance performances, speeches, poster competition, reel competition, and skit presentations. The performances beautifully reflected the theme of the event and showcased the creativity, talent, and dedication of the nursing students. The speech presentations focused on the evolving role of nurses, leadership in healthcare, and the importance of compassion and professional excellence in nursing practice. The poster and reel competitions encouraged students to express innovative ideas related to nursing awareness and healthcare services. The skit performances effectively conveyed meaningful social and healthcare messages while entertaining the audience. The cultural dance performances added joy and energy to the celebration and were highly appreciated by everyone present. The active participation of students and faculty members made the event vibrant and successful. At the end of the program, a prize distribution ceremony was conducted to appreciate and encourage the participants and winners of various competitions. Prizes were distributed by the respected faculty members. The event concluded with a vote of thanks expressing gratitude to the organizers, participants, faculty members, and all those who contributed to the successful execution of the celebration. The celebration of International Nurses Day served as a reminder of the dedication, strength, and commitment of nurses toward saving lives and promoting health. The event ended on a positive and inspiring note, leaving everyone motivated and proud of the nursing profession.
