| Description (min 150 to max 800 words) *                        | An elocution competition was successfully organized by the Department of Pharmacy, School of Medical and Allied Sciences in celebration of National Pharmacy Week on the theme “Pharmacist as Advocates of Vaccination” on 22 Nov, 2025. The event aimed to enhance students’ awareness about the crucial role of pharmacists in promoting immunization, addressing vaccine hesitancy, and safeguarding public health. Participants eloquently expressed their views on the importance of vaccination, community education, and the pharmacist’s responsibility in disease prevention. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation and showcased strong oratory skills, subject knowledge, and confidence among students. Winners were selected by the judging panel based on communication skills, clarity of thought, content relevance, and overall presentation, making the event both informative and inspiring. |
